2020

About the Group.

Developing graduates into global leaders.

NIET Group is an education collective comprised of four Australian Registered Training Organisations, each delivering quality, affordable qualifications in a diverse range of high demand industries.

Incorporating Charlton Brown, Macleay College, Rhodes Business School and the National Institute of Education and Technology, together they represent over 150 years of vocational education. Collectively, our mission is to deliver learning that stimulates, challenges and fulfills the potential of excellent students from around the world, leading to meaningful careers and profound contributions to society.

Based in South East Queensland & Tasmania, our campuses are a reflection of our passion for education, combining industry expert training, cutting-edge training aids, and modern expansive student spaces.

Increasing demand for vocational skills is driving a critical need for graduates that have cutting-edge practical skills and experience. Thus, as a group we ensure every student receives hands-on experience in the classroom and the workplace, ensuring each graduate is a perfect fit within their chosen field. Across our 4 organisations, we have delivered more than 30,000 graduates into longterm global careers, all anchored by the best practical and theoretical knowledge that Australia has to offer.

NIET Group's institutional commitment to education exists to create a lifelong relationship of learning, towards a reciprocal longterm cycle of skill improvement, and the formation of a lasting bond between our colleges, graduates, and community.

As we look to 2020 and beyond, engagement for NIET Group takes a central role, by reemphasising the value of our connections and contributions to community and society and focusing on the quality and importance of academic work.

Charlton Brown

Qualifications across the full life spectrum of care.

Charlton Brown has built a global reputation as a leader in community care through training, recruitment, global linkages and industry advocacy. We have trained more than 17,000 students worldwide and placed many in employment, both nationally and internationally. Charlton Brown has also paved the way for students from around the world to study with us at our Brisbane-based college, and externally throughout Australia.

It is our mission here at Charlton Brown to develop exceptional care professionals who enrich the lives and communities of those they support.

To develop the exceptional carers our communities need, we ask one simple question - "Would I like this person caring for my loved one?" This guiding philosophy is why we're now leading the way as a specialist provider of training and education in the child care, aged care, disability, and community services sector. Our reputation, both here in Australia and globally, speaks for itself, as we've been producing the world's best carers for more than 30 years.

Our strong care philosophy underpins our approach to training and business. It also drives our network-building activities with international partners, resulting in formal agreements and the delivery of qualifications and skillsets to Australian Standards across Indonesia, Vietnam, China, Japan, Malaysia, Sri Lanka, India and the Philippines.
